NFU Mutual Research

NFU Mutual are a major sponsor of the ALRC and they are undertaking some market research within member clubs. If any members feel able to participate then there is a card available at club night to complete and post back, or a copy of this card is attached to this email for you to print your own. All returned cards will be entered into a draw for £50 M&S vouchers

Photos for the website

We do still need loads of photos from all our events—especially those in the long ago past or our most recent events. If you can help, you can give a disk to Burt at any club event or send him an email with photos attached.

ENLROC members now get a 15% discount on all products. To make use of this discount, take a look at their website and email them with your name, address, membership number, telephone number and part number and quantity for them to process the order showing the discount.

Red Cross Driving Day

A massive thank you goes to the members who gave driving lessons and loaned their vehicles for the Ladies Driving Day, raising money for the Red Cross and Fire Fighters Charity.

The organisers were very impressed by our members and have booked us again for next year. We will let you know when a date and venue have been agreed and we are looking for even more drivers to keep up with Demand.
