

September 2015

ENYROADUP

Dear ENLROC Members,

I think that it's been a busy summer for many club members but sadly I haven't received any news, photos or information for the September newsletter. If you do have anything to share please do email or see me at the club night.

I have postponed the photo competition until next month in the hope of generating a little more interest. Please read the full notice a little further on.

I have also attached an updated calendar which takes us up to Christmas. Once again I am happy to add any events or information which is helpful to club members so just let me know.

I was away myself for most of the summer holidays and therefore missed the annual Polish and Pose event. I hear that it was once again very well supported and a fun evening despite the British summer weather.

Notices:

Shows: Passes for Old Warden and Cranford have arrived, please bring an extra bit of cash with you next club night (Thurs 3rd September) to obtain them.

Jess

Trials: Please check out the dates for the next few months trials. The one at Cranford on Sunday 13th September is our interclub event. As such it would be great to see as many entrants and possible. If you don't want to compete why not pop along to support or visit over lunch. Better still volunteer to help marshal the course. See James or Paul for more information.

Christmas: Yep, it's only just September and we're thinking ahead to the Christmas schedule for over-eating. The club night is planned for Thursday 10th Dec. As usual we will have presentations made and this year we hope to extend the range of trophies awarded to club members. We also plan to hold the raffle and I would ask you to look out for suitable donations to the prizes please. I am assuming that the pub will have a Christmas menu out at that time and we'll discuss arriving slightly earlier to eat if people fancy that.
