The ENLROC SLIDER

The Monthly (Sort of) Newsletter of the East Northants Land Rover Owners' Club

March Hare Madness, Enl-Rockers!!

Or it would have been if the place was open... maybe next month, or the month after...the March club night is on Wednesday the 14th at:

The Windmill Club, Glassbrook Rd, Rushden NN10 9RP

For those who haven't been before, park round the back (or front if there is room) go to the front door, press the buzzer and they will let you in. The club meet in the room on the right before the bar.

Apologies in advance for the shortened Slider, I normally find about 7 hours to put it together, today I have two... but unsurprisingly it took three... I'm also bound to have forgotten something, sorry...

Cheers!

Mark

Club Night:

CLUB NIGHT FUN:

Er, suspended until the next time I'm there, which will be in May, when it will be connect-four night... with beer prizes! You have seen the prizes so you know they are real. Both Gail and myself think we can win this one, so start practicing now!... hoho.

The prizes last month were won by Colin Jones Snr (beer) for turning up with the most amazing F14 paper plane model, and by his grandson, Harry (piston keyring), who can build a paper plane that really flies! Top job both.

Shows:

Notes from the committee meeting minutes last Wednesday:

At Cavalcade this year there are 13 units camping and 20 vehicles to display.

Lampport Hall will not be going ahead as most of our vehicles are deemed not old enough.

Stow Cum Quy on the 14th/15th July (Cambridge Show) have decided that we can use the ground to run off road rides. This will entail drivers kindly driving their vehicles with passengers for a small donation. At the end of the weekend all monies raised will be divided between their and our charities 50/50.

I can personally recommend this show – only made it there once but it was the highlight of the show season! Huge area with wooded areas nearby. We have a massive stand space too. I'm also liking the sound of the off-road course... 😊

See the calendar for dates.

Laning!

The one on Saturday 3rd March was cancelled because of challenging weather, and then a bunch of you went laning anyway. I don't know. Got a Land Rover so you can drive in any weather and then you go out and drive in it! Oh, hang on... Good work everyone! I tried to rob pics off facebook as usual, but it wouldn't play. Go onto the club fb page, however, and you can see them for yourself.

Heroes. ☺

Next mission from Milligan's will be on Saturday 7th April, 08:30 for breakfast, 09:30 heading off! Come and join the Brave Adventurers Laning Landys to Somewhere on that day! ☺

Please let Dan know if you are coming so we can tailor the excursion to meet the number of participants. I'll be laning in France. ☺

SHOP!

New Shopkeeper in the hood! Ash French, please step up to the plate...

Grainwaves

“Got any ugly, lumpy, overgrown bits that I can have a look at?”

Is what you need to say to everyone you know who owns a field to see if they'll occasionally rent it our way for trialling purposes... Yes, we're still looking for new trials courses!

Saturday Lunchtime Social:

The Small Print: The ENLROC SLIDER does not accept responsibility for unsolicited manuscripts, articles or photographs, frosty mornings, frosty receptions or 'frosting'. We think that actually means icing sugar. Bloody colonials, messing with The Queen's English. Trunk; luggage box, fender; fire surround, hood; head-covering or foreskin. No. it's not good enough, they all need shooting. Oh, hang on, they're taking care of that themselves... Nor does the slider accept responsibility for 'Celebrities on Skates' of whatever it is called. I've just seen one sliding around on a big luggage box on wheels or 'trunk' (Americans please take note). Bloody celebrities, sliding around here on luggage boxes. What is the world coming to? Here at Slider towers we're definitely having zip to do with that, much like a Monday morning quarterback.
